

02.03.02 RELLIS Academic Alliance

Approved May 18, 2021
Next Scheduled Review: May 18, 2026

Regulation Summary

This regulation describes the governance of the RELLIS Academic Alliance of The Texas A&M University System (system).

Regulation

1. The RELLIS Academic Alliance (Academic Alliance) is a university system center on the RELLIS Campus approved by the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board.
 2. The Academic Alliance is a consortium of the System Offices, participating member institutions and agencies, and certain other institutions to offer academic, workforce development, and continuing professional development programs on the RELLIS Campus.
 3. The Academic Alliance is coordinated by leadership appointed by the System Offices.
 4. The System Offices must enter into agreement(s) with each participating member institution and agency, as well as other institutions providing programs through Academic Alliance, that are sufficient to establish the responsibilities of all parties in the operation of the Academic Alliance and identify any cost-sharing or fees that may be expected or incurred.
 5. Academic Alliance leadership must coordinate with RELLIS Administration to ensure compliance with RELLIS standards pursuant to System Regulation 02.03.01, RELLIS Campus.
