Policy Summary

All employees of The Texas A&M University System (system) receive training on the duties and responsibilities of their positions and on the various policies, regulations, rules and procedures related to their employment. Training is in accordance with state law and regulations established by the chancellor.

Policy

1. USE OF PUBLIC FUNDS FOR EMPLOYEE TRAINING

The chancellor establishes regulations related to the use of public funds to provide system employee training, subject to restrictions defined in state law.

2. REQUIRED EMPLOYEE TRAINING

The chancellor establishes regulations that provide training requirements to ensure that training is provided to system personnel. Training must include, but is not limited to, job duties and responsibilities, and policies, regulations, rules and procedures.
