Policy Summary

The vice chancellor for governmental relations within The Texas A&M University System (system) Office of Governmental Relations is responsible for preparing and recommending to the chancellor of the system a public policy and legislative affairs program that communicates to the executive and legislative branches of federal and state government the needs and interests of the system members.

Policy

The vice chancellor for governmental relations coordinates the system's federal and state public policy and legislative affairs program. These federal and state public policy and legislative affairs programs must not be construed as lobbying, but are rather a legitimate function of supplying needed information.

Member Rule Requirements

A rule is not required to supplement this policy.
